County LVN's Hold Christmas Party December 12

Jones County Licensed Vocational Nurses gathered in the home of Mrs. A. B. Rainwater in Anson for their annual Christmas party, December 12, with Mrs. Hazel Higdon and Mrs. Adele Dixon of Hamlin as co-hostesses.

Decorations in keeping with the season, included the traditional lighted Christmas tree. Mrs. Llera Drummond of Hamlin and Mrs. Elva Lou Cox of Anson acted as "Santa Claus" as the gifts were distributed.

Mrs. Higdon, in a short devotional, called attention to the fact that in the rust of buying and exchanging gifts we sometimes forget that it was Christ whose birth made Christmas possible. She encouraged the nurses to ask His guidance in their work and daily lives.

Members of the L.V.N.A. Division No. 54 of Hamlin who attended the party were Mmes. Viola Brown, Minnie Brown, Leona Tiechelman, Drummond, Effie Miller, Addie Mae Kelley, Carman Hallmark, Erma Wallace, Higdon and Dixon.

Mrs. Ada McClure Given Christmas Shower by Friends

Friends and neighbors honored Mrs. Ada McClure, 89, of the Boyd Chapel Community with a Christmas shower in her home December 20. The surprise party was to show their appreciation for the years of service she has given for church and community.

Approximately 35 guests attended from Anson, Hamlin and Los Angeles, California.

HEALTH SERVICES BEING URGED AS REWARDING, HELPFUL CAREER

Light from a single window breaks the dark expanse of a five-story building. Inside the room is a research scientist pouring over a pile of notes, trying to piece together bits of evidence which could possibly lead to a significant breakthrough in the battle against cancer.

Miles away in a small town, a secretary unlocks the door of the local health department and starts filling out requisitions for needed supplies. She is no scientist and the researcher hates the trivialities of order forms.

Yet both of these people have much in common. They are both engaged in a health career.

In the growing competition among industry, the professions, education, government service, welfare and the health services for skilled, competent personnel, a career dedicated to serving fellow man through the health services can be rewarding both career-wise and personally.

Health careers include callings that care for the ill and the injured; and they include callings that help to prevent illness—prevent.

Training varies from about a high school education for some workers in a hospital to more than eight years of college for a physician.

The entire spectrum of working talents are offered in health fields including biologists, food service workers, housekeepers, statistical clerks, machinists, administrators, engineers, writers, artists, chemists and photographers. The list goes on and on.

A health careerist can be his own boss as a private physician or consultant or he can work as a skilled member of a highly organized team in a local or state health department, hospital or health agency.

However, high standards are demanded regardless of the precise job performed. Many Texas colleges and universities offer courses designed to train students for the various health careers.

The health sciences are just beginning to enter on a new threshold of achievement. Atomic medicine is providing better diagnosis and treatment of such ills as cancer and thyroid diseases and epidemiology procedures in public health are solving more and more communicable disease problems.

High school students should consider a health career seriously. (A weekly feature from Public Health Education, Texas State Department of Health)

"The Fussy Pill Rollers"

Bessire Death Remains Mystery; Negro Sought

By BILL MCADA
Reporter-News Staff Writer

The afternoon of Christmas Eve, a retuned city employee left his holiday-decorated frame home a little early to relieve another water pump station operator who would want to be with his family.

James C. Bessire, a man who might have passed as Santa himself in proper attire and beard, knew his two grown children wouldn't arrive until Christmas Day.

"It was just like him," Hamlin city radio dispatcher F. M. Crow said of the man he had known since 1919. "He was a real accommodating fellow."

At his mid-afternoon departure, Mrs. Bessire saw her husband alive for the last time.

Body Found

Three days later, his body was found about 200 yards from his abandoned sedan, parked on a seldom-traveled gravel road about nine miles southeast of here.

At first, there was little or no indication that the 230-pound man had met foul play. Then, on preliminary investigation by Jones County Sheriff Dave Reeves, the picture began to change from a natural death to homicide.

A watch given Bessire by his daughter as a Christmas gift three years ago was missing. So was his wallet which is believed to have contained little money.

"His pockets didn't seem to have been rifled," Sheriff Reeves said.

The body still wore a gold wedding band.

Sheriff Reeves then discovered that the ignition keys to Bessire's eight-year old sedan were not on a large ring of keys used by the pump station operator in his work.

A Christmas package which had contained a pair of gloves was found torn open and left on the front seat of the car.

Efforts by Abilene Police Lt. Grover C. Chronister to lift fingerprints from the car proved unsuccessful.

An autopsy showed that a blow severe enough to cause a concussion, but doubtfully heavy enough to cause death, had fallen behind Bessire's left ear. There was a bruise below the rib cage on the left side.

The temperature fell to 40 degrees Christmas Eve night, which, along with the concussion, is believed to have caused death sometime early Sunday night.

Officially, Justice of the Peace Albert Story in Anson said the death resulted from a blow on the head at the hands of a person or persons unknown and that "from all appearances he then died of exposure."

"It's a homicide," he said,

"and it's going to be a tough one."

Mrs. Bessire required hospitalization when her husband failed to return home. She returned home shortly before the body was discovered.

Why Was He There?

The mystery of why Bessire was in the remote area where he had met death baffles Mrs. Bessire as well as officers. "If he was a drinking man like some are, I could understand it, maybe," she said Tuesday.

(The scene is near the Tuxedo liquor stores.)

"But he wasn't. He was a good man . . . always close to his family," she said. "He loved them so much." Her voice was weak and tears welled in her eyes.

Dispatcher Crow suggests Bessire may have been near the city's southeastern limits to buy some fireworks for his grandchildren. The family can offer no theories.

Mrs. Edmund W. Robb, wife of the minister of the First Methodist Church, speaks well of Bessire. "He attended church regularly," she said.

"Mr. Bessire was held in high regard here," she said.

Theories are dime a dozen. All are being explored carefully by Sheriff Reeves and his deputies. Other law enforcement agencies are helping.

Reeves guards his leads and other information closely. For the most part, he answers the questions put to him about the death with a simple yes or no.

"I have witnesses who saw a man at the dead man's car on the road where it was found," Sheriff Reeves says. "He was only six to 10 feet away" from those who saw him.

There are enough other witnesses to trace the movements of a suspect from Aspermont to a spot on the Anson highway near the death scene.

Hamlin Police Chief John McCurdy issued an appeal to area newspapers, radio and television for any assistance from West Central Texans.

"There must be others who saw this man," Chief McCurdy feels.

Negro Man Seen

"We have a witness who saw a negro serviceman fitting the description getting out of a blue pickup truck in Aspermont," he said. This was about 12:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 24, the day Bessire "disappeared."

Another witness saw a Negro serviceman of similar description in a Hamlin theater about 2:30 p.m. the same day.

The same witness, who was also attending the movie, later saw the uniformed Negro crossing the railway tracks on the east side of Hamlin's business district about 4 p.m., Chief McCurdy said.

A Hamlin man, accompanied by his family, recalled seeing the serviceman and is positive the Negro was a member of the Marine Corps, the chief said. He did not identify the witness.

"We noticed his military bearing and commented that he would be late getting home for Christmas," Chief McCurdy quoted the witness as saying.

About a half-hour later, Mrs. H. E. Walton, owner of the Hamlin Courts near the Anson-Sweetwater highway intersection, saw such a Negro serviceman attempting to catch a ride as he walked toward Anson.

Trouble Getting Ride

"I noticed him and thought that he would have a lot of trouble getting a ride with white folks this late in the day," she said.

She described him as being tall and slim and said he was carrying a small bag.

Other witnesses saw a Negro with Bessire in his car about 4:30 p.m. Christmas Eve on the southeastern edge of Hamlin.

The next report of the suspect's whereabouts came from the witness cited by Sheriff Reeves.

Another witness told of seeing a man fitting the description near the small church on the Tuxedo cutoff (FM 1660) about 6 p.m.

An unnamed Jones County deputy recalls seeing the serviceman on the Anson highway as the officer was going to Hamlin to pick up a prisoner, Chief McCurdy said. At this time, the death had not been discovered.

There have been other reports—one from as far away as New Mexico—which Sheriff Reeves declines to divulge in detail.

The investigation goes on—and so does the speculation.

News and Views . . .

and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

Like most of you, I enjoyed the long week ends afforded by Christmas and New Year's coming on Monday this year but with the paper being published on Wednesday it makes for a short week.

In going up to visit with my mother in Phillips over the New Year's week I noticed that all of the gins North of here seem to be just as swamped as the ones around here. I was under the impression that we were about the only one this late in getting our cotton out of the fields but we don't seem to be. Every gin I saw was covered with trailers.

Voters of Hamlin and this area will have an opportunity to purchase their Poll Tax receipts this year at the BCD office. Arrangements have been made to make Mrs. Ned Moore a deputy tax collector so that it will not be necessary for local people to make a trip to Anson to become eligible to vote.

Although, so far the county politics are quiet, the district and state races should warrant considerable interest on the part of the voters this year.

It is very questionable whether the current special session of the Texas Legislature will produce any worth while results. The main item of business for the session is the governor's Escheat Law which he has failed to get through in several other attempts. I don't know whether his chances are any better this time or not.

Post-Christmas judgments usually make strong trade-at-home advocates of chronic wanderers who are convinced that brilliant bargains can be obtained only at some distance from their place of residence.

Here are some examples of the trials of long distant bargain shoppers:

A child's entire Christmas selection arrives via mail two days after December 25.

A mail order company mistakenly sends a girl's bicycle for a robust 6-year-old male who wouldn't be caught dead on a vehicle designed for wearers of skirts.

Susie Smite has specified a certain type of walking, talking, wetting doll which Mother Smite presumes can be obtained in a certain metropolitan department store. After transportation costs of $20, Mother Smite learns that the metropolitan store has disgorged its entire stock of the favorite dolls.

In the latter instance, and in many similar cases, parents learn that the identical gifts may have been obtained locally at identical or lower prices.

In truth, the small town market does not differ substantially from the large city or mail order market. Manufacturing, distribution, and prices have been very nearly standardized the country over. The local stores have real advantages such as convenience and readily available services.

DUN & BRADSTREET LISTS 339 FIRMS IN JONES COUNTY IN '62

Today, A. J. Hemphill, district manager of the Fort Worth office of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., announced statement requests were mailed to businesses in Jones County. He said figures obtained from a physical count of the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book for January, 1962, totaled 339 manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers in this area.

Mr. Hemphill stated that during January, business concerns in all parts of the United States are asked by Dun & Bradstreet for copies of their financial statements. This year requests are being sent to approximately three million business concerns—to the corner grocery worth a few thousand dollars as well as to businesses worth millions.

The Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book lists those manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers who seek or grant commercial credit, but it does not include some of the service and professional businesses such as beauty and barber shops, security dealers, and real estate brokers. Therefore, the figures for total business in the United States would be higher than the three million quoted above.

During the past year, Hemphill added 291 changes were made in the Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book listings of Jones County businesses, including 81 names added, 102 deleted, and 108 changes in the ratings of continuing businesses. The charges occurring in Jones County are about even with the rest of the country, where a change of business significance is counted about every five seconds.

Beaver Seeking Re-election as Superintendent

To the Citizens of Jones County:

Holding a public office is a public trust and an honor. You have afforded me the opportunity to serve in such a position as your county superintendent of schools for several years. For this opportunity, I am deeply grateful. I have endeavored to demonstrate my gratitude by rendering courteous, prompt, honest, economical and efficient service to you and the schools of Jones County.

In addition to expressing my appreciation for the privilege of serving as your county superintendent, I take this opportunity to ask reelection to this office. If you choose to keep me, I shall continue to serve you with the same sincerity of purpose and courtesy as in the past.

My qualifications have been presented to you before, but please permit me to enumerate some of these again.

I am fifty-one years of age, married, with two children. I have served and shall continue to serve as an active church member and citizen of my town, county, state and nation.

I hold a diploma from the Hamlin High School and the bachelor and master of arts degrees from the University of Texas, with majors in school administration, social science, and Spanish.

I have been professionally engaged in school work for thirty-one consecutive years, interrupted only by more than three years in the armed forces during World War II. This school work includes experience as a teacher, high school principal, superintendent of an independent school district, and that as your county superintendent.

Your vote, cooperation, and influence have meant much to me in the past, and I humbly solicit this support in the future. For this support I pledge continued service beyond the call of duty.

Respectfully Submitted,
Everett Beaver

Each school district in the State of Texas is required to take school census of all children between the age of six years and eighteen years as of September 1, 1962. The month of January is designated as the month that the census must be taken.

The Hamlin Schools have begun this task and would appreciate the help of all parents in the community, according to C. F. Cook, Superintendent of Schools.

The six year olds who are not now going to school but will be in our school next year are the children most difficult to enumerate for the school census, Cook stated. Parents who have children that fall in the above category, please help us get your child on the census. It is necessary for the six year olds on the census before they can attend school next year.

It is in order here to say that in our city there has been too much street begging. It seems that if a real charitable case comes up it would be better to investigate than to let all kinds of fakers and dead beats prey upon the public. We believe in helping those who merit help and making the fellow who can earn a living do it other than begging. . . . W. J. Jackson buys out the W. E. Hunter Wholesale Grain store. He plans to add flour, feed and seed. . . . Yes Sir-ee Hamlin has a Golf Club and why not, Hamlin has as sporty gentlemen as you can find even in the city of Washington. A break in the main gas pipeline of the Lone Star Gas

Co. near Wichita Falls, has resulted in the shut down of several industries here, including the gypsum plant, compress, oil mill, laundry, and cleaning plant. School officials were advised by the company to close down for the rest of the week so Hamlin "school kids" were about the only ones in town that could find any happiness from a broken gas main. . . . Pfc. Lawrence A. (Buck) Joiner was to have reported for duty at Elmendorf Field, Fort Richardson, Alaska on January 1. . . . Like practically all communities in the vast domain of Texas, Hamlin and surrounding areas were gripped firmly by winter's icy hands this week with the weatherman promising no relief in the immediate future. NEINDA PHILOSOPHER CLAIMS FARM EXPERTS DON'T KNOW WHAT THEY'RE TALKING ABOUT ON 1962

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route one is looking forward to the new year with his brand of optimism.

I was out here on my Johnson grass farm winding up my 1961 farming activities about like I wound them up the year before, and was trying to remember whether I wrote down the cost of some feed I bought on the north side of the barn or on the door to the chicken house and was wondering what would happen if the Internal Revenue Service ever asked me to bring my records in.

"The Center of the Southwest faces Growth Unlimited"

We believe this to be a fact because the Southwest is growing 25% faster than the Nation, and our service area is the heart of the region. What's more, we are convinced this growth will continue, because expansion of commercial, industrial and agricultural activities all point that way. On our part we are backing up this belief in coming growth with a multi-million-dollar expansion program. Our service facilities are being increased today, to serve more people, more businesses, more industries tomorrow. Yes, for all of us, there's GROWTH UNLIMITED ahead.

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

Another beautiful week has passed and the farmers of our community are really busy gathering the cotton, which is all open now and making quite a bit more than what was expected earlier. All early cotton made very good, but so much was late, owing to so many big rains in the planting season and the insects got so will manage to exist another much of that, but most of us year, which is about all a farmer ever expects.

Most of our sick folks have recovered and were back in church again Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ford and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry were all back after several weeks absence on account of sickness. Little Melinda Kay Wright still had to stay in, so she didn't get to Sunday School.

As far as this reporter could learn everyone spent the Christmas Holidays as they had planned and all arrived back home safe and sound, which is something many people over our land failed to do. We went to New Mexico, where we spent Christmas with a brother and sisters, enjoyed our trip very much and had beautiful weather.

There were a few that we failed last week to find out their Christmas plans. Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Bond spent Christmas eve in Spur with his sister and family.

The Drakes had Mr. and Mrs. Bud Scott of Albany visiting on Christmas eve.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Rosenbaum spent Christmas and last week, with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rosenbaum and with her folks in Hamlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Jones went to Abilene last Tuesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neal in the Hendrick Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Runt McCoy and Larry visited with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner Saturday night. Suzanne McCoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson McCoy of Midland, spent last week with Kay McCoy.

Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Buck Joiner, Charles, Jerry and Susan, visited with the Elmer Joiners.

Mrs. A. P. Proffitt of Baird and her daughter, Mrs. Aurila Mae Lynch and daughter of Abilene, were Sunday afternoon visitors of the Drakes. Sunday night Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Flenniken and Tommy visited with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Jones ate dinner with the Elmer Joiners Sunday.

Visitors in the Henry home Christmas week were their son, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Henry, Boyd and Jo, from Elgin. Also the W. C. Henry's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Sansing, Austin and a son, Lt. and Mrs. Bill Henry, stationed in Morehead, North Carolina, but their home is in Austin.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. C. C. Renfro is in the Hamlin Hospital. Mrs. Renfro not being well herself is staying in the hospital with him.

Ronald and Jeannie Joiner, Stamford, spent last Wednesday with their grandparents.

Our community was shocked by the tragic death of Mr. Besire, as many out this way were close friends of the family. Our deepest sympathy goes to his family in this terrible ordeal.

A new member was added to our Sunday School roll Sunday. Little Sherri Denice Combs came to church for the first time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Riddle enjoyed having all of their children and their families for Christmas. They are: Mr. and Mrs. Russel Glen and daughters, Odessa, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Morrison, Kenny and Sara, Abilene, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Terrell and sons, Tucson, Arizona, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Riddle and children, Stamford and from Hamlin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fowler and sons, Mrs. Kenneth Riddle, Mr. and Mrs. Sharlot Gabriel and children.

If any one thinks the women have gone soft from easy living, they should drive out our way and see how many of them are up on the high top of a big cotton trailer, riding behind a cotton stripper. It may not be such a joy ride, but it surely is a lot of help to their husbands for them to keep the cotton raked back, and as I said, several of them are doing a good job of it.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN—"Escheat" is a word you'll hear often during the next 30 days.

With the fourth session of the 57th Legislature under way the most important item on the agenda is "escheat." Governor Daniel called this third special session because he believes the more than 1,500 banks and savings and loan associations should be subject to escheat.

But just what is "escheat?" It's a process as ancient as Roman history; written in Old England's feudal law; described as Webster as, "Reversion of land to the crown, or to the state in the United States, by failure of persons legally entitled to hold the same."

Escheat provisions were incorporated in the constitution of the Republic of Texas, and enacted as a state statute in 1885.

Texas law always has stated that when anybody dies without heirs, or disappears and can't be found, his property shall be turned over to the state after seven years. But the law has lacked a provision by which persons or institutions holding property of missing persons were required to report it.

Governor Daniel started pushing for a provision three years ago, and last summer the Legislature finally passed a reporting provision. But the bankers have fought it long and successfully. They are still exempt from the reporting law, although all other businesses and public agencies must comply.

During the interim between legislative sessions, a special house committee has been investigating enforcement of escheat laws applicable to banking institutions. Committee discovered that much of the $4,000,000 escheatable accounts lying dormant in Texas banks is being dissipated through service charges and recommended that:

1. The Legislature add banking institutions to the escheat enforcement law without delay and require banks to advertise for lost owners after seven years.
2. That this matter receive prompt attention in the January session, because the committee estimates a year's delay would mean the loss of $1,000,000 through the procedure of service charges on accounts that don't require service.

REACH 1,000—The 600 who decided to organize a Texas Tourist Council at the November "Texans for Tourists," conference here, have swollen to an estimated 1,000. They will gather in Austin on January 10 for the first Council meeting.

After the group approves a constitution and elects officers for the "nonpartisan, nonprofit" tourist promotion organization, it will host a "dutch lunch" for all representatives and senators.

Luncheon will feature a presentation urging that money be made available from the General Fund to the Texas Highway Department for tourist advertising purposes.

W. Price Jr., chairman of the Tourist Council's executive committee, writes, "We have every reason to believe that the Governor will submit in his call appropriations for the tourist attraction program before our meeting on January 10."

Earlier, the committee estimated that $3,000,000 would be needed from General Revenue to get the advertising program underway. The council hopes to augment this amount with $2,000,000 in private subscriptions.

PRESIDENTIAL TASK FORCE—National interest in Texas' program of work with the mentally retarded resulted of the Texas Education Agency, to the President's Task Force Committee on Education and Rehabilitation.

In the appointment of Charles S. Eskridge, director of the Division of Special Education, Eskridge will serve with physicians, scientists, educators and rehabilitation specialists selected from other sections of the country.

Approximately 5,000,000 Americans are mentally retarded, of whom four per cent reside in institutions at an annual cost of almost $300,000,000.

The Texas Education Agency has been notably successful in a cooperative schoolwork program of local school education of mentally retarded children between the ages of six and 17.

HOUSING FOR THE AGED—In an effort to stimulate housing for those men and women among Texas' 745,000 old folks who need either special-built small homes, apartments priced within their limited incomes or institutions that offer nursing care, the Governor's Committee on Aged has prepared a guide to federal building programs.

Guidebook outlines procedures and requirements for obtaining building loans from seven federal agencies, some of which are virtually unknown to the average citizen or organization.

Response has been so great that the original order of 3,000 copies is just about depleted. Committee Chairman Senator Crawford C. Martin has ordered a second printing.

SHORT SNORTS: Agriculture Commissioner John C. White says he will run for re-election. He's been undefeated since he first won the post in 1950.

HERE ARE 2 OF THE NEW JET-SMOOTH CHEVROLETS

WHICH ONE IS THE CONVERTIBLE AND WHICH THE HARDTOP?

Top one's our new Impala Sport Coupe whose steel roof line is a dead ringer for the Impala Convertible's below. But after rich new styling, what? In glamor and go, comfort and craftsmanship, here's all you'd reasonably expect of an expensive car. Except the expense.

Slip inside a Jet-smooth Chevrolet, relax and just notice how good you feel. Ready for action? Just flick the key and let'er purr (your choice of two standard engines—a 135-hp 6 or 170-hp V8—or optional-at-extra-cost V8's way up to a 409-hp mile-shrinker). That gentle cradling motion you enjoy is Jet-smooth ride at work. And the rich interior and neat craftsmanship are Body by Fisher at work. Have your dealer give you the whole story. That's the work he loves best.

IRS DESIGNS TEXAS SALES TAX TABLE FOR TAX DEDUCTION

Texas taxpayers will get a break in claiming Texas sales tax payments on their federal income tax returns for 1961. This was announced today by B. Frank White, Internal Revenue Service Regional Commissioner for Texas and four other southwestern states.

The IRS has devised a Texas Sales Tax Table to help the Texas taxpayer calculate his state sales tax deduction at a glance and without troublesome keeping.

According to Mr. White, Texas taxpayers who itemize their deductions on Form 1040 will not have to keep their state sales tax records, providing their Texas sales tax deductions do not exceed those on the Tax Table.

"Texas taxpayers making state sales tax payments in excess of the amounts shown on the Table may take deductions to which they are lawfully entitled," Mr. White said.

However, these taxpayers must keep sales tax records and be able to prove their deductions in the same way as they would be required to verify any other deductions on their federal tax return.

"Taxpayers using the standard 10 percent deduction would not be entitled to deduct the Sales Tax payment," Mr. White said.

The Tax Table gives average amounts spent by Texas residents for sales taxes and is arranged according to various adjusted gross income brackets. Since the Texas Sales Tax did not go into effect until September 1 of this year, the IRS Tax Table covers the period between September 1 and December 31, 1961. A new Table will be published for 1962.

Mr. White explained that estimates of average Texas general sales tax payments are based on two kinds of information—state sales tax laws and a statistical analysis of consumer spending. When new spending patterns are established, or substantial changes are made in the Texas Sales Tax Law, the Table will be revised.

The Table does not include such deductible items as the Texas state tax on gasoline, which is five cents a gallon, or the state tax on cigarettes, 8 cents a pack, which was effective August 28, 1961.

Mr. White said that the time saving Texas Sales Tax Table will be off the presses

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

TIE CLIP FAD IS MOVING

Dear Amy:
I read your column about the tie clips and went out and bought six and gave them to my girlfriends. I think the idea is the wildest!!!

Johnnie

Dear Johnnie:
You read me wrong. Only one tie clip to a couple!

Dear Amy:
So that's where my tie clips are disappearing to!

A Wondering Father

Dear Amy:
I received more tie clips than I have collar points. What should I do?

Monica

Dear Monica:
That's the price of popularity. Share them with Dad.

Dear Amy:
I broke off with my boy friend. Should I return his tie clip?

Sandra

Dear Sandra:
Certainly! You're not 'tied' to him anymore.

Dear Amy:
I don't have a boy friend. Could I buy myself a tie clip?

Lonesome

Dear Lonesome:
Only if you wear ties, otherwise you're cheating.

Dear Amy:
Recently I wrote to you about the washing machine situation in the apartment building I moved into. Your answer gave me the nerve to assert myself.

Now I have another problem—with the washing machines again—and a neighbor. We have become good friends and are helpful to each other. However, there is one thing that she does which I find very annoying. I usually use two washers on Monday. One for white clothes and one for colored clothes, and she knows it. She comes down to the laundry room with a few pieces of colored clothes and says it's a shame to spend a quarter to wash these few things; I'll just throw them in with your clothes.

I can't stand having anyone wash their clothes with mine... friend or no friend. How can I handle this situation without hurting her feelings?

Agitated

Dear Agitated:
Don't be blue over your wash worries. Assert yourself as you did before. If she's a good friend, the friendship won't go down the drain.

Dear Amy:
I am French and in France you can find stores where they repair the runs in your stockings. During the eight months that I have lived in the United States, I have been looking and searching for such a shop without success.

Could you tell me if all American women throw their stockings (with runs) away, or if they have them repaired?

Nicole

Dear Nicole:
When an American woman's stockings run, she 'darns' them and then buys a new pair.

Dear Amy:
What do you think of a man who lives about 5 minutes from where he works who does not go home for dinner and his wife doesn't make him any to take along. I think if a woman loved her man, she would surely want to feed him. Don't you? Maybe he likes somebody else's company better than hers.

A Sister-in-Law
P.S. I'm the d— fool who's been cooking his dinner and feeding him for four years!

Dear Sister-in-Law:
If you didn't enjoy being the fool, you would have stopped "feeding" him four years ago!

DAILY HABITS BLAMED FOR MANY DENTAL PROBLEMS

AUSTIN—Dental authorities can count at least 36 every day habits that a great many Americans practice in one degree or another that are actually injurious to mouth tissue. Item: Opening bottles with your teeth may make you the life of the party, but it's a juvenile practice as far as good dental health is concerned. Still, people often damage their teeth using them for such undesirable erosion of teeth as likely practices. The habit of biting pensively on ear loops of glasses can be an important factor in teeth migration—moving out of position, dentists point out. Chewing on pencil or pen during moments of concentration is almost an occupational hazard for bookkeeper and stenographers. Dentists report conmong people in these professions. Upholsterers, carpenters, and shoemakers who hold nails between their teeth develop typical dental ailments. Seamstresses who bite thread and dressmakers who hold pins and needles between their teeth invariably suffer from bad mouth conditions, dentists have found.

A sleeping habit known as "pillowing" may lead to incorrect closure of teeth. This is the habit some people have of sleeping with cheek on fist, forcing the lower jaw out of natural alignment. Obscure headaches, tenderness at the temples or facial tenseness are often signs of faulty closure of teeth, a condition which is aggravated by poor dental habits.

Cotton Harvest Passes Half Way Mark as Gins Run Behind

The past week and a half of pretty weather has put the area's farm machinery in high gear as the farmers are getting their crops out of the fields as fast as possible.

A check of the Hamlin and Neinda Farmers Cooperative Gins reveals that a little more than half of the cotton crop has been harvested by Wednesday afternoon. Both gins have been running around the clock since last week, including both Christmas Eve and Christmas day, trying to catch up with the pickers and strippers.

The late maize crop has also been coming in at a fast clip since the weather has cleared. Most of the Maize was in by Wednesday afternoon with remaining crop waiting only on the equipment getting to it.

The Hamlin Farmers Gin

had weighed in 3,879 bales Wednesday morning and was running about 200 bales behind. Watt Fletcher, manager, reported that he expected to bale about another 2,000 bales of what he termed a good cotton crop. The cotton is averaging about $3.125, which is down only about $5 per bale from the season's high. About half of the cotton going to the Hamlin gin has been hand pulled and the rest stripped.

The Farmers Cooperative Gin of Neinda has ginned 2,265 bales by Wednesday morning, and were expecting to gin a total of around 4,000 bales with only about 10 to 15 per cent hand picked.

Both gins reported a shortage of pickers. They both expect to continue running around the clock as long as the weather remains clear.

Hamlin Band Invited to Stock Show

F. T. WORTH—The Hamlin High School Band has been invited to participate in the opening day parade of the 1962 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show. The parade will be held at 2 p.m. Friday, Jan. 26, through downtown Ft. Worth.

F. M. Dougherty, Stock Show vice-president and parade chairman, extended the invitation to the band director, pointing out that the marching band is a parade's indispensable feature. Dougherty said all band members who march in the parade will be given free passes to the Stock Show grounds.

The Fort Worth Rodeo, scheduled Jan. 26-Feb. 4, will feature two stars of television's top-rated western "Bonanza," Lorne Green as Ben Cartwright and big Dan Blocker as Hoss Cartwright. There will be approximately 400 rugged cowboys and other special attractions.

More than 10,000 livestock entries will be on exhibit at the 1962 Fort Worth Stock Show, in its 66th year as the nation's oldest major livestock show.

W.L. (Poochey) McDonald will seek another term as district clerk of Jones County. He asked The Herald this past week to make his announcement.

"I'll have a formal statement later on," Mr. McDonald said. "Right now I want my friends to know that I am a candidate." Mr. McDonald is serving his first term.

FARMERS WARNED OF COMING TAX DEADLINE BY SPECIALIST

College Station—The year of 1961 will soon be history. For many people, the end of December means the conclusion of another tax year and that tax obligations must soon be met, points out C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist.

Before tackling the tax reporting job, Bates suggests that farmers and ranchmen get a copy of the Internal Revenue Service's 1962 edition of the Farmer's Tax Guide. It is available without cost from the offices of local county agents or those of the Internal Revenue Service. The guide is written in easy-to-read style and includes examples of problems worked out on the applicable tax forms, Bates says.

As for the dates, January 15 is the deadline for farmers and ranchmen who want extra time for filing their final report to file their 1961 tax estimate. If the estimate is filed, Bates explains, the final date for filing of the 1040 form is extended to April 15. If no estimate is filed, February 15 then becomes the deadline for making the final tax report. These deadlines, points out the specialist, apply to tax-payors who derived two-thirds or more of their 1961 gross income from farming or ranching.

Another important consideration is the reporting of hired labor and the social security tax on wages paid. Either of two tests determine whether or not a farmer must pay the social security tax on wages. If the worker was paid $150 or more during the calendar year or if the worker was paid wages (on hourly or day basis) for 20 days or more during the year, the 3 percent social security tax should have been deducted from the cash wages.

Form 943 is used for reporting farm wages. The farmer-employer must show the wages paid and give the account number of individual workers. The withheld tax plus an equal amount from the employer's account must be reported on Form 943 or a month after the close of the year. Because every phase of the farm and ranch business can be affected by taxes, Bates emphasizes the need for a study of the Tax Guide.

Bryon D. Wallace Taking Training

LACKLAND AFB—Airman Basic Bryon D. Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Wallace of 312 S.W. Fifth, is being assigned to the United States Air Force technical training course for air armament and gunnery specialists at Lowry AFB, Colo.

Airman Wallace, who has completed his basic military training at Lackland AFB, was selected for the advanced course on the basis of his interests and aptitudes.

The airman is a graduate of Hamlin High School and a former student of Texas Technological College in Lubbock.

Declares Dividend

Chicago—The board of directors of The Celotex Corporation today declared quarterly dividends on common and preferred stock for the quarter ending January 31, 1962. The dividends are 25 cents a share on preferred stock and 25 cents per share on common stock, both payable January 31, 1962 to stockholders of record January 3, 1962.

ABILENE FIRM TO CONDUCT SURVEY TO FIND BUILDINGS SUITABLE FOR FALLOUT SHELTERS

FT. WORTH — Col. R. P. West, District Engineer U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, of Fort Worth District, completed negotiations with the firm of Boone and Pope, Architects, Engineers, Abilene, for a contract to conduct Phase I of a Fallout Shelter Survey in Taylor, Knox, Haskell and Jones Counties.

Colonel West has the responsibility for conducting a survey and marking program of available fallout shelter space in existing buildings and other protected areas in the State of Texas in coordination with State and local Civil Defense directors.

Work to be accomplished under the contract will include the location of existing buildings and other facilities which have a potential for use as public fallout shelters and the tabulation of basic data on same to permit evaluation of the protective characteristics of these facilities. It will be one of the first such contracts to be awarded in the state.

Colonel West explained that subsequent phases of the program will include marking, with owner's consent, those facilities which meet structural and space requirements for use as public fallout shelters and the preparation of plans and estimates of costs for improvement, where necessary, these facilities which do not meet current requirements but do have a potential for use as a public shelter.

Data developed by the survey will be furnished local Civil Defense authorities for use in preparation of shelter utilization and Civil Defense plans.

Basic requirements of building in the survey as a potential shelter for use by a general public include: space for at least 50 persons, walls and roof of thickness that will block all but 1/20 of radiation present outside.

Just at noon, Saturday, Dec. 24, the ceiling at the Meador Variety Store was seen to be on fire. The alarm was given and soon the boys had what might have been a bad fire extinguished. Mr. Meador was just in the midst of his Christmas sales and also his Christmas photography. Most of his goods were covered with oil cloth and his valuable new photo instruments were removed but were a little damaged. Before night adjustments were made and the doors were opened for real fire bargains. Mr. Meador was protected by insurance. The fire seems to have originated either from a spark into a bunch of trash, either from a flue or a fire cracker according to reports.

Perhaps it would be a good move to offer a prize or number of prizes for individual Christmas decorations in Hamlin. Should this have been done, this year, the committee would have had a hard time picking the winners. The list of special efforts to create the Christmas atmosphere about the homes would be long indeed. But if the rest will forgive us we shall mention a few—for example the W. F. Johnson display on North Union Ave.—the Frank Waggoner home on the same street and further south the home of Mrs. B. S. Ferguson, then on Lake Drive the home of Dr. and Mrs. Turner Bynum and there are many others. Inside of homes may be seen colors of red and green and brightly lighted Christmas trees. One thing that the "off and on" lights are doing in Hamlin this Christmas time—pull a long grating noise from the radio. The pulsating noise is made by the coming on and off of the lights. Note that all radio interference will cease after the Christmas lights have passed.

Prices of holiday goodies in 1945 included fat hens, 47c lb.; turkeys, 53c lb.; pecans, 8 oz. package, 63c; 1 lb. package, $1.25; calavos, 23c each; oranges, 12c lb.; apples, 14c lb.; celery, 11c lb.; potatoes, 10 lb. bag, 45c; popular brand cigarettes, 10 pkg. carton, $1.57.

Effective immediately, Hamlin area property owners are advised there will be reductions of more than 8 per cent on fire insurance rates for city dwellings and 10 per cent reduction in farm and ranch property fire rates. . . . Under provisions of the GI Bill of Rights, young men of Hamlin and Jones County 17 to 25 years of age may go to college four years, tuition paid and $50 per month living expenses, in return for three years spent in the Army.

Folks of the Hamlin area, along with citizens over rest of the country, will begin paying their first of a series of postal increases on January 1. The penny post card will go to two cents; and purchasers of 50 or more must pay an extra 10 per cent for paper stock. . . . Five o'clock on Wednesday morning last week might have seemed like a miserable time to crawl out of bed—but it wasn't for Mrs. Frances E. Scott, of Hamlin. There was a knock at her front door and her son, Kelly Scott, who is a farmer nine miles southeast of Hamlin, brought her the happiest news she had received in months. Her son, private First Class Mickey K. Scott of the United States Marines, was alive and a prisoner in Camp No. 3 of the Communist enemy in Korea.

Permanent formation of a Hamlin Community Chest was delayed until after the holidays, when a conference held Friday morning at the First Methodist Church failed to get a representative attendance of members of organizations of the city. The Friday morning conference discussed the advantages of a Hamlin Community Chest. Starr Inzer presided over the meeting attended by Dr. Joe McCrary, Mac Brundage, Fred Smith, Stan Shepperd, Wesley Nail, George Campbell, Ed Branscum, L. H. McBride, Gene Prewitt and Rev. Darris Egger. They voted unanimously to form a Hamlin Community Chest, but it was decided to get more of a representative group from the entire community before any permanent organization was to be formed.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights by Vern Sanford

AUSTIN—"Operation Death watch," which began Saturday midnight and ends at midnight New Years Day, is the most urgent business of the Governor's office today.

Gov. Price Daniel has written every Texas sheriff and chief of police, asking each law officer in Texas to help make the State's streets and highways safer for Texas drivers during the 10-day holidays season.

Governor Daniel said the anticipated toll of 88 holiday traffic deaths is the lowest estimate ever made, and stated "it pinpoints the progress of recent years in reducing Texas traffic tragedies during the year-end holiday. However, even more lives can be saved this year if the people obey the laws and drive safely."

Newspaper publishers, the Texas Press Association, broadcast and billboard owners are cooperating in the campaign, urging Texans to take individual responsibility for traffic safety, and asking drivers to keep headlights burning during daylight hours as a reminder that safe and legal driving is the best way to a void holiday crashes.

BANKS STILL BALK—Most Texas banks balked at the Legislative committee's request that they make their dormant accounts public.

Five of the 38 banks subpoenaed to appear before the committee failed to do so. The committee filled out questionnaires by deadline time. Twenty-two banks were represented at the hearing. Eleven failed to show up.

Houston's City National Bank attorney Raybourn Thompson, speaking on behalf of all 22 banks present, and two others, requested that the committee get an opinion from the Attorney General as to whether it has the power to force testimony "that would destroy banker-depositors' confidences."

Thompson said if the committee refused, the banks would testify "under protest."

for incumbent governors, "to the exclusion of other Democrats outside the Executive Committee itself."

Wilson contended that the list is the property of all Texas Democratic candidates, for use in party primaries.

Wilson has accepted an invitation to face opponent John Connally in a debate.

Weslaco attorney Jon Dee Lawrence extended the invitation to both gubernatorial candidates on behalf of the Weslaco Jaycees, but Connally hasn't replied.

Principal issue of the debate would be: "Is the Governor of Texas To Be a Number One Chief Executive P or somebody else's agent?"

THE BUSINESS AT HAND—The Attorney General's assistants have been busy writing opinions on everything from a major gas company dispute to a matter of land willed to the Baptist General Convention.

The Attorney General intervened in a case in the 43rd District Court at Parker County, making a motion to set aside a default judgment voiding conveyance of 1,000 acres of land to the Baptist General Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stocks Sr. willed the land in Parker and Hood Counties to the Baptists in 1955, but their son J. H. Stocks alleges his parents were not legally competent at the time.

Wilson made his motion under a statute which said the Attorney General may be made a party to any suit to annul or impair any instrument creating or affecting a charitable trust.

As representative of the Texas Railroad Commission, the City of San Antonio, the City Public Service Board and Alamo Gas Supply Company the Attorney General filed a motion with the Supreme Court asking it to compel 126th

District Judge Jack Roberts of Austin to enter judgment in San Antonio's gas contract dispute.

Motion arises from a suit filed by United Gas, which is contracted to supply gas for San Antonio until April 1, when Alamo Gas is scheduled to take over.

Judge Roberts has said the case was out of his court's jurisdiction. Railroad Commission ruled that it had no jurisdiction in the dispute.

The Attorney General also has ruled that:

1. Failure to possess a valid poll tax does not disqualify a juror in any criminal case.

2. It's unconstitutional for a court to authorize a sheriff to destroy property seized from arrested persons in county jail, even if property is unclaimed for 90 days.

3. State Education Commission has the right to audit state funds in county administration and school transportation funds.

Short Short Snorts

Speaker James A. Turman says the "staggering costs of government" could be reduced if qualified voters would take an active interest.

He estimates spending in local, state and national government has risen 156 per cent since 1950, and points to the fact that recently two state representatives were elected by less than six per cent of the qualified voters in their areas.

Capitol hostess Mrs. J. W. Beck will resign on February 1. The senator's widow, who has talked to hundreds of years at the Capitol, is staying through the special session at through the special session at the Governor's request.

State Securities Commission issued permits to sell more than $49,000,000 worth of securities during November.

Welfare Commissioner John H. Winters says the Aid to Dependent Children program is "charged with aiding immorality," but that only 20 per cent of the 59,809 Texas children receiving ADC are illegitimate.

On the other hand, there are 131,133 illegitimate children in the eligible age bracket (under 14) in Texas today, he states.

U. S. Senator Ralph Yarborough called on Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman to act immediately to establish a price support program on some 10,000 tons of peanuts damaged in a freeze in Texas.

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER'S CALENDAR AND DISCOVERS CHRISTMAS HERE AGAIN PAGES TURNED BY WIND, HE LOOKS UP

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson Grass farm on Route one has found out what time of the year it is, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor: Somebody left a door open last night and the wind blew in and turned the pages of my calendar and I glanced up and discovered this isn't October, it's December, and next Monday it's Christmas. I don't know how it got here, but it's all right with me.

I know there are people who think Christmas comes too often, but they probably think Spring comes too often too, that children grow too fast, etc. They take a one-sided view. Most children I've ever known were eager to grow up and it's only the old folks, who are in the minority, who hoped they'd slow down.

People are always being surprised by things in time. Every Spring I hear some farmer say, "Why, planting time will be here before you know it." So what? I've had years when not only did planting time get here before I knew it, it passed before I knew it. And I've had years when it didn't slip up on me and I got my seed in the ground on time and wound up the year in about the same shape I would have if I'd slept through it.

Now about Christmas, though I know it's more blessed to give than to receive, but I wish somebody would let Mr. Kruschey know this doesn't apply to atom bombs. I have a no-ate a circulation boom?

And don't tell me it would wreck the government's budget. The government's budget has been wrecked for two generations, and it's still functioning. Arguing the government shouldn't adopt my Christmas Parity Program is like arguing a man shouldn't buy something till he can afford it. Congress repealed that law years ago. Merry Christmas.

Yours faithfully, J.A.

Telephone service never stops improving

These 6 communications improvements, now in effect in many communities, are some of the hundreds being made each day—to give you the best possible telephone service at the lowest possible cost.

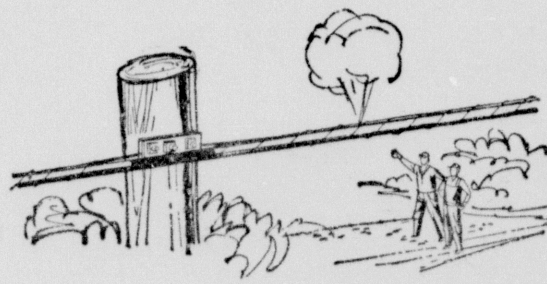

Direct Distance Dialing permits you to dial your own Long Distance calls as quickly and easily as you do local calls. This service improvement is spreading rapidly. By the end of the year, one fourth of our telephone customers will be able to call Long Distance this faster, easier way.

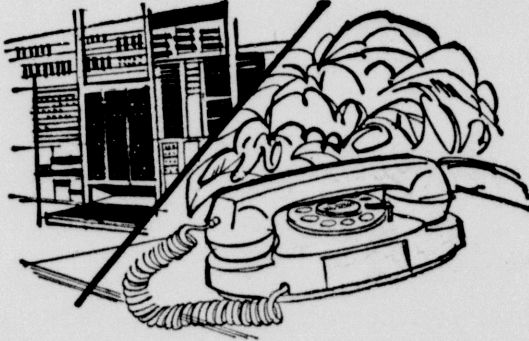

Electronic Voice Boosters keep your voice at a strong, clear conversational level, prevent fade-out caused by distance. Loss in transmission has been cut nearly in half in the last five years. Today, you hear better than ever.

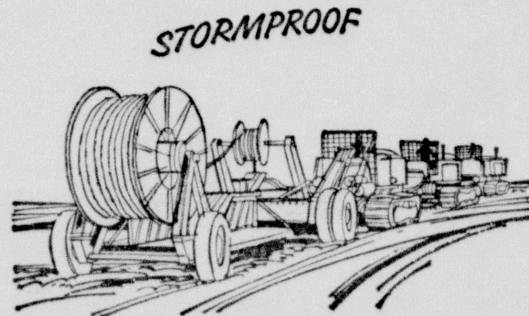

Recorded Announcement helps prevent lost calls. Should someone forget to hang up an extension or accidentally knock the receiver off the hook, a recording reminds you to hang up the receiver. This enables you to be reached once again by those trying to call you.

Pumping Air in Cables helps keep your telephone trouble free. Air pressure in the cable holds out moisture should a small leak occur. Reduced pressure as air escapes provides warning of leak so it can be repaired before it affects your service.

Automatic Line Test is made periodically on most telephone lines. This equipment tests your line and your telephone for electrical defects. If it locates trouble, information is recorded so that the trouble can be promptly fixed and disruption of service prevented.

Burying Telephone Cables makes them weatherproof, gives you more trouble-free service. Today, 55 percent of telephone wire is underground, providing stormproof express routes for your local and Long Distance calls.

One of the largest retail activities in the United States is the used car market. It is also one of the most competitive of businesses.

In used car selling, the newspaper is practically the only advertising medium used. Of course some dealers experiment with other media, but most used car dealers have learned that the local newspaper must do the bulk of their selling.

Three principal reasons have been given by used car dealers for their reliance on newspaper advertising:

"The newspaper is the basic shopping place for the used car prospect. He studies the market for cars in the newspapers for weeks before he ever visits a dealer."

"Secondly, the newspaper provides the prospect with assurance that the advertising is reliable. He feels that he can depend upon a promise that is made in black and white in the family newspaper."

"Third, the newspaper is a great selector and eliminator. It pre-sells real prospects and eliminates from people who could not possibly be interested in the offerings of a particular dealer."

Because of the competitive situation the value of the newspaper as a medium for selling used cars is much more readily recognized in large cities than in smaller trade centers. The large city dealer knows when his business goes elsewhere—and why.

Unfortunately, the dealer in the smaller city often does not realize that a large percentage

out the Old Ring in the NEW

Another year has passed, and things gone by, we cannot change. So ring out the old year and ring in the new with high resolutions. These bells, which have long been used by churches as a call to worship, are ringing an opportunity for you to begin the new year at worship with the Lord in His house.
Start now and be faithful throughout this year. Attend Church regularly.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family.
Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
